To make sure that I'm not looking for answers on performances, books or online, I understand that the exam is timely quickly so that I have to take the correct answer quickly, or the exam will end before I'm finished. My tests in Indonesia will continue to be based on paper until the SCA does not translate the test in Indonesia. The instructors will have the opportunity to request exceptions for an entire class or individual students. If your browser crashes during the test or disconnects you from the Internet, or anything else during the exam, the test timer continues and the test is still active. Examination fees vary according to the level of the course. There are many reasons why a learner may not have taken a written online exam within the calendar 21 day test period. The instructor must pay the cost of the course again unless other arrangements are made with the trainer. There is another webinar planned, with more details, answering questions that have arisen during this webinar, and also a live demo of the test. I won't use any material during the exam. These may include, and are not limited to, personal illness, accident, bereavement, lack of internet access, any other unforeseen circumstance which makes it difficult for the learner to take the exam. This fee is included in the cost of any course from me. It is up to the trainer if the practical score of the previous course remains valid or if the practical exam must be resumed. The test is rigorously programmed to ensure that students cannot easily search for answers. The test is designed to be carried out on a desktop/laptop, not on a phone or tablet. Successful candidates should be able to create and prepare a recipe, prepare a wide range of drinks with quality and speed, as well as understand the basic requirements for high-level customer service and maintenance of equipment. This is a new procedure not yet implemented and so I will probably have to update and possibly edit some of the information on this page. If the student's appeal is granted, a 7-day calendar window will be given in which to complete the exam for the third time. After completing the test, students will receive a coaching report.
